Introduction

This help file aims to assist you in registering a new VUMA-network license on your computer.

The VUMA-suite of software packages uses licenses to manage access to the software, updates for new versions, specialized features, maintenance, and support. To use the software, you will need a valid license. You can register for a license by registering your user information.

The VUMA-network software has two main license models:

- Standard user licenses
This license model is used for single users that only need to activate a license on a single computer. This is the license type most users will use. This license model requires that a user register during the initial license activation process. After the user registration process has been completed a license key will be emailed to the registered email address. You can then use this license key to activate your copy of the software.
- Educational licenses
This license model is used ONLY by universities. These license keys are sent out before the license activation process occurs on your computer.

Understanding the different license models is important before you can start the license activation process. If you are a registered university, please do not check the EDUCATIONAL box.

1. Single user licensing

The single user license process will guide you through a couple of steps that will assist you in activating your new VUMA license. The first step is a questionnaire where we can get feedback on how you use the software so that we may improve your experience in the future.

1.1. Questionnaire

In this step we ask you to answer three questions. You can skip this step by clicking on the ‘Skip’ button on the bottom left of the screen.

Please consider completing this form as accurately as possible. We can use this information to help shape your future VUMA experience closer to your duties and requirements.

The screenshot shows a questionnaire interface with a dark blue header and a light blue background. The header text reads: "To get things started we would like to learn more about you and how you plan to use this software:". The form contains three sections:

- Section 1: "Please select what type of user you are:" with radio buttons for "Mine employee", "Student", "Consultant", and "N/A" (selected).
- Section 2: "Please select which primary resource type you work with:" with radio buttons for "Precious metals", "Base metals", "Coal", "Potash", "Other", and "N/A" (selected).
- Section 3: "What is your spoken language:" with a radio button for "Select language" and "N/A" (selected). Below this is a dropdown menu showing "English".

At the bottom left, there is a logo of four interlocking puzzle pieces in red, blue, and purple. At the bottom right, there are two buttons: "Skip x" and "Continue ⏪".

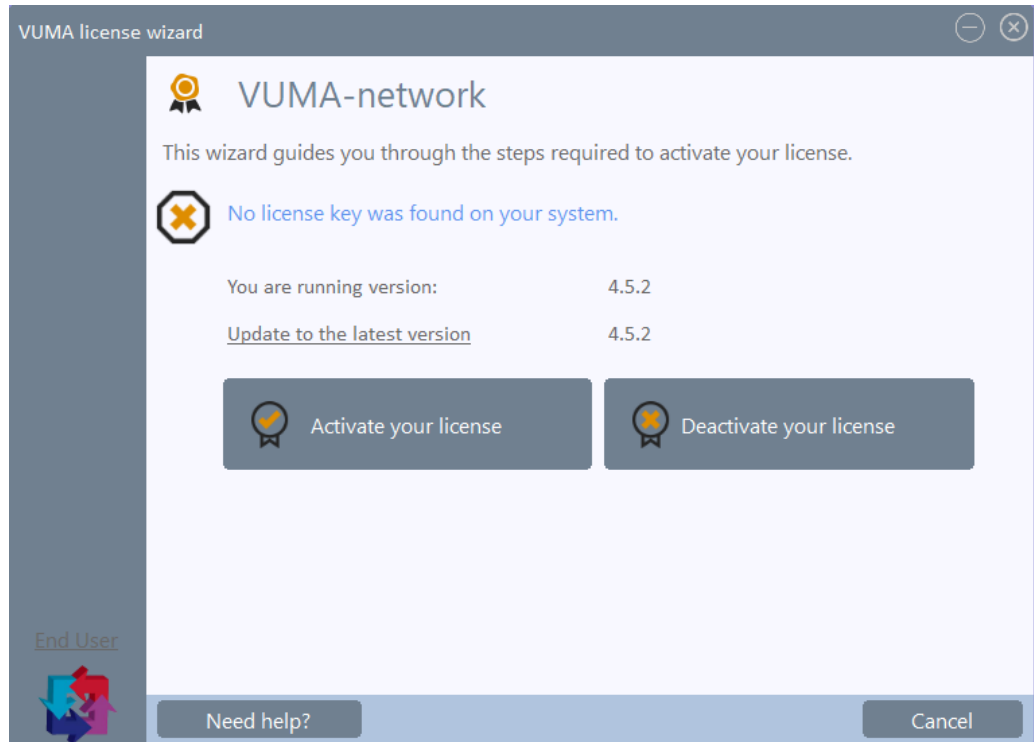

Once you have completed the questions, click ‘Continue’ to proceed to the next step.
